

SCOTT ANGRAVE

“England’s Funniest Export”

After several years working in commercial radio as a specialist comedy presenter and a comedy sketch writer for the British Broadcasting Corporation (The “BBC”), Scott set his sights and sails for the burgeoning comedy mecca, which is the United States. His easy charm and dry British wit, both hallmarks of his style, quickly insinuated him onto stage and into the hearts of the many audiences for whom he has performed. He is quick, talented, and memorable. Scott is a favorite repeat performer who has moved rapidly and deservedly to headline status.

TELEVISION

AN EVENING AT THE IMPROV – A & E
COMEDY ON THE ROAD – A & E
LAST COMIC STANDING - NBC
STAND UP STAND UP - COMEDY CHANNEL
CLUB 54 – CANADIAN TV
WHAT'S SO FUNNY? – FOX TV

RADIO

A REGULAR ON THE SYDICATED “JOHN BOY & BILLY SHOW”
WRITER: COMEDY SKETCHES, COMMERCIALS
ACTOR: SHORT PLAYS, SKETCHES, COMMERCIALS
PRODUCER: COMEDY SKETCHES

STAND UP

A REGULAR AT THE TROPICANA IN LAS VEGAS AND ATLANTIC CITY

OPENED FOR:
WAYNE NEWTON, THE BEACH BOYS, EDDIE MONEY, AND THE POINTER SISTERS.