

ERIC HUNTER

Eric performs non-stop around the country leaving his mark as a clean, funny, bright, friendly and original performer. He jokes sarcastically about various topics, including his friends and Irish Catholic family, education, sports and relationships. He's best known for his hilarious, deadpan attempt to impress the women in the audience.

He has performed with a wide range of comedians, including Louie Anderson at the Comedy Store in L.A., Bobcat Goldthwaite, Kevin Pollak, Dave Coulier, and Jimmy Walker.

He has made multiple appearances on the nationally syndicated "Bob and Tom" radio show, and you can also hear him on XM satellite radio channel 150 and Sirius Satellite radio.

Eric has performed in a wide variety of venues, such as comedy clubs, colleges, cruise ships, country clubs, casinos and does such a clean act, he has even performed in a church. In fact, he'll perform anywhere that begins with a "c"; plus, resorts, hotels, bars, restaurants and schools. He had audiences laughing at the 2004 New York Underground Comedy Festival. He also won Atlanta, Georgia's "Late Night Laff-Off" comedy competition when he appeared on the WB network affiliate-WATL Channel 36.
