

KELLY TERRANOVA

"The World's Only Vegetarian NASCAR Fan"

After almost 20 years in the comedy business, Kelly has shared the stage with many notable stars: Michael Bolton, The Doobie Brothers, Joan Rivers, Jim Breuer – just to name a few. He has featured on CMT's "Comedy Stage", The SPEED Channel, WGN America, NASCAR on FOX, and appeared on the nationally syndicated "Bob & Tom Radio Show".

For a man who bills himself as "The World's Only Vegetarian NASCAR Fan", this comedian seems to have energy that you would think could only come from animal protein. When Kelly Terranova hits the stage, audiences are taken on an energetic, hilarious, and slightly cynical look at America's pop culture icons: from our fascination with figure skating to NASCAR to Crocs shoes and riverboat gambling.
